SHOWER FOR WAR BRIDE

MRS. ROBERT PLUME HONORED AT PRETTY FUNCTION GIVEN BY MRS. R. L. HOLLAND

Mrs. Robert L. Holland was hostess at a delightful little function given at her home at 209 Arden avenue Friday afternoon in honor of a war bride of the neighborhood, Mrs. Robert Plume, who was the recipient of a miscellaneous shower of useful and beautiful gifts from friends and neighbors with whom she is on intimate terms. Quite a little ceremonial attended the preesntation of the presents, little Bettie Dougall bringing in a cushion for the bride to kneel upon followed by Mrs. R. L. Dell bearing a beautiful basket of flowers. Then came Mrs. Sallie Braden and Miss Chick carrying a hat box embellished with pink decorations which they presented to Mrs. Plume with the little speech that since Mr. Plume was not present to bestow her Easter bonnet, they had brought it. The bride then opened the box which contained a great variety of pretty articles.

The affair was quite informal with no special entertainment except a few musical numbers. The house was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and the afternoon was a great success socially as all the guests know each other very well. The list included: Mrs. Robert Plume, Mrs. H. M. Butts, Mrs. Grayson, Mrs. Frank Balthis, Mrs. H. M. Whitaker, Mrs. J. C. Pollock, Miss Pearl Pollock, Mrs. R. L. Dell, Mrs. Kenneth M. Dougall, Mrs. Reich, Mrs. Wm. R. Frampton, Mrs. F. J. W. Henry, Mrs. Frank R. Thomas, Mrs. L. M. Veazey, Mrs. Sallie Braden, Mrs. R. L. Harris, Miss Lillian Chick.

Lieut. Plume has reached Camp Mills and his wife is daily expecting a telegram announcing when he will start for Camp Kearny. It is the general expectation that the 160th Infantry with which he is connected will reach Los Angeles next Saturday and be welcomed with a big demonstration.

THREE IN ONE FAMILY

T. J. Fambrough, of 453 Oak St., is now in Honolulu, H. I., looking after revenue collections for Uncle Sam, little dreaming that three of his family are down with the flu. Mrs. Fambrough, Miss Virginia and Jack are thus afflicted, leaving only Miss Louise to take care of the house and of the sick. None of the cases are serious, however.

QUIET WEDDING

DOROTHY CORWIN ARMSTRONG AND RALPH HUGH WELCOME UNITED

A pretty wedding but one which was made very simple in deference to the quiet tastes of the contracting parties was celebrated Saturday evening when Miss Dorothy Corwin Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Milton Armstrong of 1225 South Maryland avenue, was united in marriage to Ralph Hugh Welcome, son of S. B. Welcome, president of the Commercial Engine Company of Los Angeles. The ceremony was performed at the First Presbyterian Church of Glendale, Rev. W. E. Edmonds officiating, and immediately following the bridal party adjourned to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Marlenee, 301 South Central avenue, where a wedding reception and supper was held attended only by the relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Armstrong, and the Marlenee home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with spring flowers in a pink and white color scheme. Mr. and Mrs. Welcome left the same night on a wedding journey which will last several weeks. On their return they will take up their residence in an apartment in the Pico Heights district in the city of Los Angeles, where the groom will be associated in business with his father.

Mrs. Welcome has a large circle of friends here and was the guest of honor at several pretty pre-nuptial social affairs.

A conspicuous and pretty feature of the wedding supper was a beautiful heart-shaped cake decorated by Mrs. Benj. F. Bledsoe of Los Angeles and presented by her to the bride. It bore a kewpie bride and groom perfect in every detail. Before the supper was served by the hostess, Mrs. Armstrong and Miss Barbara Bledsoe, who assisted them in the pleasant task, a delightful musical program was furnished by Mrs. Frank Pierce of Los Angeles who sang several very beautiful numbers.

DEATH OF ABRAHAM W. NOBLE

Friends of Miss Carrie M. Noble, Vice-Principal of the Intermediate School, will learn with sorrow that she has just suffered a bereavement in the death of Abraham W. Noble, her brother, who passed away Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, and whose body will be committed to the earth Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. He had quite a circle of friends here as for a number of years he resided in the south part of the city where he carried on a poultry ranch. He had been in ill health for some time and last January suffered an attack of influenza from which he never recovered. He died at the home of his brother and sister in Garvanza at 952 Avenue 64, and was 58 years of age and unmarried.

FROM THE WOLVERINE STATE

C. A. Valentine, of Loomis, Wash., is in Glendale visiting an old-time friend, L. L Woods, of 401 E. Colorado. He was born in Michigan City, Ind., when Mr. Woods was living there and the families were friends for many years. Mr. Valentine's father was the first deputy warden of the Northern Indiana penitentiary, which has been located in Michigan City for many years. From the way Mr. Valentine talks we wouldn't be surprised if he would yet be a resident of Glendale.

THE LAST LECTURE

A GREAT SUBJECT AND A WELL KNOWN SPEAKER CLOSE SERIES

When Dr. Martin Luther made his famous revolt against the existing order of things in the religious world the leading point contended for was justification by faith. And this today is the leading tenet of faith among Lutheran Church people as well as nearly all other Protestant bodies. It is therefore appropriate that the Ministerial Association chose for speaker on the last subject in the series on "Christian Fundamentals," a distinguished Lutheran minister, Dr. W. S. Dysinger, of Los Angeles, who will handle this subject, "Justification by Faith," ably and fearlessly. It is hoped that standing room will be at a premium tonight when Dr. Dysinger rises to speak. There will be musical numbers given. At High School auditorium tonight, beginning at 7:45.

IRRITATION BETWEEN JAPAN AND U. S.

GRIEVANCES ACCUMULATE CAUSING FRICTION BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND FLOWERY KINGDOM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, March 31.—The State Department has asked the American embassy in Mexico for a full report on the alleged Mexican concession of land in Lower California to Japanese interests. The department has not received any official report from Mexico, and was unable to determine whether the land was the holding of the California-Mexico Land Company, reported sold to Japanese interests two weeks ago.

Matters causing irritation between the United States and Japan are beginning to accumulate, and now include:

The race question, now before the peace conference.

The recent clash at Tien Tsin.

The question of American co-operation with the Japanese in Siberia.

Japanese effort to gain a foothold in Lower California.

It is considered certain that the State Department will investigate the reported sale of the California-Mexican land holdings.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, March 31.—A Tokio dispatch says that Japanese War Minister Kanaka told the house of representatives on Wednesday that American troops refused to co-operate with a Japenese force fighting the Bolsheviki near Blagloceslchenck. When asked if the refusal amounted to insubordination, Kanaka said that he understood the orders of General Olani, the Allied commander in that region, were effective only when consistent with American national policy.

GREAT TREAT PROMISED

BRILLIANT LOS ANGELES ATTORNEY TO TELL OF EXPERIENCES AT THE FRONT

Joseph Scott, a prominent Los Angeles attorney who was on the fighting front in France with the Knights of Columbus workers, will relate some of his experiences tonight at the Palace Grand Theatre. Following is a brief synopsis of what he will talk about:

"Reaching Paris right after the crisis of Chateau-Thierry, I was privileged at once to get a close up view of the situation and of the tense few days which followed before the second great and glorious battle of the Marne. I was extremely fortunate in being right on the ground at two of the most critical stages of this war and particularly comforting ones to us in the United States, because our American lads were there with the big punch in both terrific battles.

"I was captivated by the little French Poilu. He is simply everywhere, smiling, quiet and courteous to a degree, bearing his four years of hard campaigning, very often including severe wounds, with stoicism and composure. He gets along famously with the American doughboy, as they try to murder each other's language with a droll appeal to the sign language as a last resort.

"Paris is no longer gay. It was a very serious people which I saw with one million Germans less than 40 miles from them, but the courage of the civilian population was superb. Mourning is very much in evidence, but patience and Spartan heroism go with it.

"I returned to the United States on an American troop ship that gave me a first-hand opportunity to observe the fine spirit of discipline and loyalty to a great cause which actuates our sailor lads.

"My whole trip has been so full of novel experiences, thrilling sensations and profound emotions that a book could not record them.

"Don't forget the women. What glorious angels I saw in the hospitals By the flicker of faint lamps in the wards, under the fierce white light of the operating table, there she was, gentle and sweet and adorable. The doctors are a great bunch I have seen them working when nerve and muscle and eyesight, and every faculty commanded halt, but they went right along, for the big, long line of stretchers had its suffering load out in the coridors, demanding attention, and, thanks to these noble fellows, always getting it."

BALLOT ON LEAGUE

MEMBERS OF FIRST METHODIST CHURCH VOTE ON COVENANT OF PEACE CONSTITUTION

The congregation of the First Methodist Church took a ballot on the League of Nations Sunday morning. The question was put without relation to the form of constitution for such a league now before the peace conference.

One hundred and thirty-one took part in the vote and there was not a negative ballot cast. Two of the voters qualified their ballot with "If possible to agree on constitution."

The vote was taken at the close of the pastor's sermon on "The Rock of Ages." Taking as a text Matt. 16-18, "Thou art Peter, and on this rock will I build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it," he said in part: "In these days, when almost everything is being moved off its foundations, it is well for believers in Christianity to assure themselves of the underpinning of their faith. Three things are here suggested—the church's foundations, character, and permanence.

"It requires a healthy imagination to understand the Bible. The man without imagination and the man with a fantastic fancy are equally mingled. One tried to cramp the beautiful imagery of scriptural language into the literal and mechanical meanings, and the other reads into the simplest statement of fact a strained and unnatural symbolism.

"The simple meaning of the text is that Peter's confession, 'Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God,' is the cornerstone of Christianity. Jesus had not advertised His Deity. He had reevaled it and waited the voluntary acknowledgment of men.

"The supreme question for twentieth century Christian civilization is, 'Do we sincerely believe that "Other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, even Jesus Christ"?'

"In the broadest sense the church is the brotherhood of all believers in that truth, of all nations, colors, races and conditions. The ecclesias-

SCHOOL BANQUET

GIRLS' LEAGUE HANDSOMELY ENTERTAINS FOOTBALL TEAM OF GLENDALE HIGH

The delicious dinner served to the boys of the football team and their special guests Friday evening in the cafeteria by members of the Girls' League was a fine example of good team work and a convincing demonstration for the domestic science department headed by Miss Ellen Hanson, who had general supervision of the banquet assisted by some of her pupils and the delegates of the League.

Very handsome the tables looked when spread for the feast. Lovely sprays of pink and white Cherokee roses were set at intervals, and at each plate was a place card, a clever symphony in browns with a football decoration bearing the name of the guest and folded to stand upright. Girls of the art department were given the credit for these which will be prized by the boys as souvenirs of a very happy occasion.

All the afternoon Marcella Miller and Ruth Ryan were busy with Miss Hanson in the kitchen from whence the most appetizing odors developed and spread through the building, tempting members of the election board to steal away from their duties and try to get a taste. Later they were joined by Miss Flood, Dean of Girls, and by delegates from the different classes appointed by the league,—Geneva Martin, Virginia Chappius, Edna Farner and Garnet Peters, and all were on duty until nine o'clock when the last dish had been washed and put away and the tables dismantled.

The dinner was delicious. It began with fruit salad which was fol-

DOG POISONERS AT WORK

Mrs. C. E. Rodgers of 1129 East Harvard has been dangerously ill of appendicitis but is recovering, though she expects to submit to an operation later. Her condition was aggravated by grief and anger over the wanton poisoning of two valuable bulldogs, which were great pets in the family.

Mrs. Rodgers says she has heard of other cases of this despicable crime in the neighborhood recently. This is a dastardly act and the perpetrators, if apprehended, should be severely punished.

FIRST AID CLASS

Thirteen persons enrolled Friday evening for the First Aid class which is to meet twice a week at the headquarters of the Glendale Red Cross Chapter on Brand boulevard above the Bank of Glendale. Dr. Boyer is the instructor and the gathering last night was a preliminary meeting at which the manuals were given out and a general talk was made by the doctor on first aid work. Others have signified their intention of taking the course and being present at the next meeting when any who wish instruction in this line will be welcome. The class will meet at the same place Tuesday and Friday evenings.

A FULL DAY

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH CONGREGATION PUTS IN A STRENUOUS 12 HOURS

At the Central Christian Church yesterday forenoon, after a Sunday School session with an attendance of over 200, Rev. Cole spoke on "An Efficient Sunday School Program," contending that the old idea that the church and the Bible School were two separate institutions was no longer held to. The Bible School is the church at work teaching children, men and women how to become Christians and how to live the Christ life; and an efficient program for such a school is one that best carries out this plan. In the evening the mission study classes held their sessions at 7 and then the "stunt" was put on by the women's class. It was the best yet, representing the ignorant foreigners of many nationalities being taught the American language and reverence for the flag. It was full of humor and sound sense. Following this came a half hour song service led by Prof. Luther Solt, then the sermon on "The Bargains of Fools."

Taking Esau's sale of his birthright as a text, the pastor spoke of how men honored in civil and church life, too, often sell their birthright, the esteem of their fellowmen and the hope of eternal life, for money or other paltry consideration. The sermon was an appeal for a higher standard of thought and action.

FINE WAR RECORD

Children's Hospital with money and large donations of clothing, food, fruit, etc.; has kept a membership in the Juvenal Protection Association, and has done a great amount of local charity work directly or indirectly the result of war.

Now that peace is assured and people's thoughts are returning to their ordinary channels, it is understood that the club is planning an Easter Drive to add to its rapidly increasing membership list.

In view of the above record of patriotic accomplishment, public benefaction and community service, to say nothing of cultural purposes achieved in presenting the year's programs of exceptional merit, advantages of section work, etc., their invitation to join the ranks of members should meet with a large response.

STILL GOING UP

Local meat dealers announce that fresh pork and bacon have been boosted in price by the wholesalers and that the retail price must increase at once. Who would have thought 10 years ago that pork chops would ever sell for 50 cents a pound or bacon for 75c, or that lard would reach a price of 38c and lard compound 30c. Butter is still away above 60c in price and eggs were boosted 5c a dozen recently. That promised reduction in the price of foodstuffs does not materialize very rapidly.

SERVICE MEN SHOULD HEED

It is reported that Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is to head the organization of World War Veterans and every community is urged to form a local order. The meeting for this purpose is to be held tomorrow evening in Elks' Social Hall, and it is hoped every service man in Glendale, Burbank, Eagle Rock and adjacent territory will attend.

HONORS AT OCCIDENTAL

GLENDALE WINS 2d IN MILITARY DRILL, 2d IN RELAYS, 4th IN TRACK MEET

Representatives of Glendale High acquitted themselves with honor on the Athletic Field at Occidental Saturday, but did not capture any first prizes though they came very near to doing so in the military drill held in the morning in which the first went to Covina, second to Glendale, third to Citrus Union, fourth to Franklin, fifth to South Pasadena. It appeared to onlookers that but for one or two slight mistakes the first award would have gone to Glendale for the company was very good in drill. Its appearance was not so favorable because of irregularities in the size of the cadets. However, the contest between the two companies was very close.

In the track meet in the afternoon the splendid team of Citrus Union was easily first and its right to first position was conceded as it won twice as many points as any other team in the lists.

The other contesting teams were so close together it was not easy for the judges to make the awards, but they were finally placed as follows: South Pasadena second, Monrovia third, Glendale fourth, Franklin fifth, Alhambra sixth, Covina seventh. Some of the Glendale men did not do as well as their friends expected in some events, but they had no reason to be ashamed of their performance as a team.

In relay work Glendale was a very close second to Citrus Union.

Baseball practice at Glendale High begins today. The team will play Hollywood Wednesday and Burbank Friday, and the schedule of Central League games will begin next week.

None of the members of the school tennis team have been picked except Hollis Moyse. The rest will be secured through try-outs this week.

OLD SCHOOLMATES

ENTERTAINED AT A COURSE LUNCHEON BY MRS. EARL LEIGHTON BRYANT

Mrs. Earl Leighton Bryant of 361 Vine street was hostess at a pretty course luncheon at which a party of old school friends were entertained Saturday, March 29th. Calendulas centered the table which was most attractive in all its appointments although the affair was quite informal and a pleasant afternoon was spent by the ladies following the luncheon in visiting and talking over old times. The guest list included: Mrs. Norman McPhail, Mrs. Albert Pierce, Mrs. Ray Mackelhose of Los Angeles, Mrs. Philip Storm of Hollywood, Mrs. J. W. McKeen of Larkershim.

SCHOOL BANQUET

lowed by roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, creamed peas in dainty patty shells made by the girls, rolls and butter, sweet pickles, apple pie a la mode, and coffee.

At the head of the tables (arranged in a T) and facing the long line were Principal George U. Moyse, N. C. Hayhurst, the coach, Irving H. Oliver, Business Manager of the School, who acted as toastmaster, and Russell Tummell, Captain of the team; Dr A. L. Bryant and Daniel Campbell of the High School Board of Trustees. At the foot were Vice-Principal H. L. Howe and Trustees Claud O. Pulliam and C. W. Young. Between these extremes places were laid for members of the team as follows: Owen Showalter, Stuart McMillan, Harold Whitaker, Clayton Cord, Raymond Fanset, Francis Powers, Allen McPherson, Maxwell Price, Kenneth Wilde, Dan Dieman, Thomas McIver, Fred Dodge, Howard Thompson, Paul Richardson, Orville Williams, Leland Wise, Frank McGillis, James McClusky, Roger Dennison, Marshall Pearson, Floyd Herman, Walter McIver, Hollis Moyse.

The program of toasts which followed was a worthy aftermath. The toastmaster was at his best. The dinner had inspired every guest with enthusiasm and the impromptu speeches made in response to Mr. Oliver's call were crisp and to the point. He played no favorites but called upon everyone following no set program or special order. Trustee Young dwelt on the loyalty of the boys to the school as well as to the team and what an asset to the institution that loyalty is. Mr. Moyse and Mr. Howe made excellent, appreciative speeches, Mr. Hayhurst and Russell Tummell responded in a measure for the team voicing what it meant to the boys to have the enthusiastic backing and moral support of classmates and professors and how often such backing stimulated and helped them to a success that would not otherwise be achieved. Along similar lines were the responses of other members who made it clear that pep and team-work are the great essentials in achieving victory.

The last item on the program was a rising vote and three cheers for the Girls' League and for the splendid banquet it had prepared and served so beautifully.

tical organizations through which that faith is propagated are at best only human helps to that end. They are crutches to help men walk toward God, in spite of their lameness.

"The world now faces the question whether or not this invisible Church shall endure. There is reassurance in the words, 'The gates of hell shall not prevail against it.' It may well seem that the gates of hell have opened and the whole troop of the nether world pour through the beset Christian civilization in these days.

"The passage at arms was settled on the fields of France and Flanders. The frenzied materialistic socialism still rages through Eastern Europe and threatens the rest of the world. But the climax of the struggle is that moral which centers around the peace table. That is much more than traditional politics. That is a movement of humanity toward the long contradicted Christian ideal of national brotherhood.

"The President of the United States is now carrying the heaviest burdens a man ever bore, and without party distinction he deserves the backing and prayers of Christendom.

"It has been wisely said that we must choose between a League of Nations to enforce peace and a league of nations to enforce anarchy. To say that we wish neither is to dodge the question. The alternative is unescapable. Which shall it be?"

FIRST AERO SHOW IN MIDDLE WEST

(By United Press)

CHICAGO, March 31.—The first national aeroplane show to be staged in the middle west opened at the Coliseum here Saturday and will continue until April 5th.

The exhibition was similar to the one recently staged by the Aircraft Manufacturers Association at Madison Square Garden, New York, and every conceivable type of plane was to be seen.

Exhibitors, explaining the mechanism of the respective planes, told spectators that a wonderful era is just ahead and predicted that passenger and freight-carrying machines will soon find popular favor.

Racing planes will also be in great demand, they said, and the medium-priced plane is now a reality. A light craft may be purchased for $3,500. The more powerful racing planes will cost from $10,000 to $75,000.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Salyer of the Glendale Music Company spent the week-end at Hemet visiting friends.

H. W. Butts and wife of 318 El Bonito avenue were both quite ill last week, Mr. Butts being kept away from the store part of the time.

Mrs. Frank J. Marsh of Central avenue has gone to Murietta Hot Springs for treatment to relieve neuritis, from which she has been suffering.

Harry F. Paseman of Riverside is spending a few days with the families of Rev. R. W. Mottern, 111 E. Harvard, and G. F. Daugherty, 219 N. Adams.

Tuesday evening the Central Methodist Church will have its regular monthly social. It will be a strictly informal April 1st good time, and simple refreshments will be served.

Mrs. G. D. Roach of 328 West Lomita and Mrs. Haskell Latham will attend the monthly luncheon of a social club to which they belong in Los Angeles. The hostess will be Mrs. W. W. Marsh of West 22d street, sister-in-law of Mrs. Roach.

Mrs. Lavinia Cushing, mother of Charles H. Cushing, librarian at the Branch Library on Brand boulevard, passed away Sunday at her home, 1035 Mariposa street. Funeral services will probably not be held until her daughter, Mrs. Eckstein, returns from the north the latter part of the week.

Mrs. W. E. Spann of Alemeda motored down with friends one day last week to join her husband, who had been in this section on a business trip for some weeks. He is agent for a big San Francisco firm dealing in manufacturers' supplies for autos. Mr. and Mrs. Spann have been the guests of A. H. Dibbern and wife, 208 W. Lomita.

PALACE GRAND ENTERTAINMENTS

Monday night Joseph Scott will give one of his brilliant talks on his wonderful experiences with the boys over there. On the screen will be shown Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in their very latest two-reel comedy, "Romance and Rings." The Pathe news events which patrons have learned to look for Monday nights and which so vividly portray happenings of interest all over the world will also be shown.

Tuesday the more than popular "Cheating Cheaters," which features Clara Kimball Young, will be on the screen. In this drama she is supported by Anna Q. Nilsson, Jack Holt, Tully Marshall and Frank Campeau, a whole galaxy of stars. The Lyons-Moran comedy, "Marry My Wife," will also furnish diversion.

GLENDALE BOY VISITS HOME SCENES

Among the guests at the supper last Friday evening in the First M. E. Church were Sergeant Ezra Mosher and wife. Ezra was born and raised in Glendale, graduated from the Glendale High School, then then entered Throop University, Pasadena, and soon after he completed the course there war came and he entered the Officers' Training School at Camp Taylor, Ky. He was there when the armistice was signed, and on receiving his discharge came back at once to the Coast and took up a claim in Lockwood Valley not far from Bakersfield, where he and his young wife are proving true pioneers. Besides keeping the new claim running properly, Ezra looks after the big family ranch near Pomona, traveling back and forth by auto. He is the son of Mrs. S. J. Mosher, 111 N. Central Ave., and brother of Miss Ella Mosher and Mrs. J. F. McBryde, Glendale residents.

A 63 TO 17 VICTORY

"Nothing to it!" was the general verdict on the basketball game between the Glendale team and that of San Fernando High which took place in the Glendale gym Friday afternoon. When the game ended the score stood 63 to 17 in favor of the home boys. Spectators could only say in explanation that the Glendale players ran all around the visiting team who got rattled and failed to do themselves justice.

The Glendale players are claiming the championship of Southern California and will hold it until challenged and defeated by the champion team of some other league. It was supposed that San Fernando was the champion of the Valley League, but it appears the team has been defeated during the year by another team which was downed by Glendale. Friday's game may therefore not be counted as other than a practice game, but it will not alter the standing of the home boys. It is probable however that they will be challenged by the champions of some other league whom they have not thus far met and defeated. They are awaiting events. Their own organization is the Central League in which they secured the championship.

HARD TIMES SOCIAL

There will be a hard times social for members of the church and their friends in the social hall of the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening. An admission fee of one apple and one doughnut will be collected from each comer and fines will be levied upon all who come with their good clothes on. As the social will be held on April Fools night, you will be fooled if you do not arrive at 8 o'clock.

OUR BIG NEIGHBOR SOBERING UP

The police department of Los Angeles reports more than 13,000 fewer arrests the first saloonless year, than in the preceding one. This record has convinced all but the most persistent "wets" that with the temptations removed a large majority of citizens prefer soberness. Glendale has given a remarkable example of this. With temptation so near in the big city and the lawless wineries even closer, arrests for drunkenness the past few years have been almost nil. With universal prohibition a new and more vigorous race will be promoted.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Tuesday.

BOYS AND GIRLS

P.-T. A.'S LEARN WHAT IS DONE FOR THEM AT COUNTY INSTITUTIONS

At a conference of the Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations with Judge Reeves, last Friday, the High School was represented by Miss Ethel Flood, Dean of Girls, who, like the other visitors, wished to learn at first hand how the courts are handling problems in which girls are involved. He told them how glad he was to have their interest and cooperation and then asked them to visit the institutions to which girls and children are sent by the courts.

But first they visited the Board of Supervisors before whom one of the representatives of the Congress and P.-T. A. spoke, urging that they immediately appropriate money for converting into a vocational school, El Ritero, a 10-acre place which the county has obtained which is very suitable for the purpose. The Board questioned a little about the expense and decided they would take action Monday morning when probably delegations of club women and P.-T. A. representatives would be on hand to urge the matter.

From the Board of Supervisors the party went to the Maud Booth Volunteers of America Home for Girls and Boys whose families are divided by divorce or other actions and before the court. The Volunteers have two buildings in which they can accommodate about one hundred children and these children go to the regular public schools.

From there they went to the Home of the Good Shepherd, maintained by the Catholics for wayward girls. About one hundred girls are there under the care of seventeen sisters, not counting the Mother Superior. It is the only order which does that work especially. There the girls sent by the court are taught vocational things. They have a commercial school and teach laundry work, cooking, sewing including embroidery and beautiful needlework. Three-fourths of the girls there are not Catholics but are placed there at the request of their friends after they have come before the court for disposition. Before they left they were entertained with cake and coffee and then went on to Juvenile Hall.

There they were joined by Miss Eva Shontz, Probation Officer, Probation Officer Porter, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Trowbridge, president and secretary of the Probation Board, and Mrs. Chandler Smith. Dr. Vandewater, superintendent of Juvenile Hall, took them through. The Hall has accommodations for about 95 and it is obliged to accommodate 120 boys and girls. They get their schooling from five teachers from the city schools. Besides that they have some vocational work, have a garden in which they do weeding and planting, there are pigs and chickens to be cared for and laundry work to be done. The teachers decide into which department of work a child shall be put. The average time that the children remain there is for the girls 21 days and for the boys 14.

From Juvenile Hall they went to Truelove Home, a maternity hospital maintained by the Salvation Army. It is run by Major Cogswell and they found about twenty girls under her care. She told them that the Home always keeps a girl three months so that she may be well and strong and come to feel that it is her home. The linking becomes so strong that nearly all who go out come back once a month. Before a young mother leaves they get her a position where she can work with her baby. For the care she receives there they charge her $30. The great hold which the institution has on the girls is through the feeling they come to have that it is home. In the six years that Major Cogswell has been there about sixty girls have married and with such affection do they regard the place that many come back after marriage to be cared for during their confinement.

After making the rounds of these institutions which had given them a very full day, the ladies returned to the Juvenile Court where Judge Reeves explained more fully the aims of the court and county authorities in dealing with these difficult problems which so greatly affect the social order.

REAL DAUGHTER OF 1812

Mrs. Ralph Meeker and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, who are members of the California State Society of Daughters of 1812, had great pleasure Friday in attending the March meeting held at the home of Mrs. Vandergrift, 2619 La Salle Ave., Los Angeles. Their hostess is 93 years of age and is a real daughter, her father having fought in the War of 1812. Because her birthday falls in this month, the chapter always holds its March meeting with her. She is a wonderful woman in many ways, an active club member, with a mind as bright and keen as it ever was, and deeply interested in the world's progress. At the close of an exceedingly pleasant afternoon delicious refreshments were served which included a beautiful birthday cake of which each member was given a piece to take home.
